The Bisham Bar

Its place in history as one of the favourite hostelries is assured having been occupied back in 1250AD by the stone mason called in to build the village church. Since then the old walls of The Bull Inn have extended hospitality to royalty, nobility and commoner alike, with guests such as the King Henry VIII, Elizabeth I and Knights Templar having all stayed here.

Its first license documents described it as the “Papal Bull” but today it is known to the locals, regulars and visitors from abroad simply as the “The Bull Inn at Bisham”, standing in all its architectural splendor in Bisham Village, a mile from Marlow Bridge spanning Old Father Thames.

One of the striking aspects of The Bull Inn is the glorious stained glass window which depicts in detail the Heraldic Shields of some of its famous ancestral connections. Today this window continues to be found lighting the Bisham Bar as it has done for centuries.

The recent refurbishments carried out by the present owner have been sensitive to its historic past but conscious in regard to the needs and demands of the modern visitor.
